A Roman Catholic Community Devoted to Stewardship
Founded 1963

Parish Mission Statement

WE, the people of Our Lady of Consolation Parish guided by the Holy Spirit and nourished by the Eucharist, pledge to continue the mission of Jesus Christ who announced the reign of God. We accept His challenge to proclaim the Good News of salvation that Jesus, the Christ, died for us, and in Him we have life to the fullest measure. We seek to live as He lived, in service to others, building a community of faith and hope, with God's grace as our strength and the peace of Christ our heart's desire.

A Message from our Pastoral Associate...

Most of us are familiar with what we call the Four Pillars of Stewardship: Prayer, Hospitality, Formation, and Service. These four ways of looking at what it means to be a disciple and a steward invite each of us to witness, experience, and live the stewardship way of life. Stewardship is how we respond to our Baptismal call to discipleship.

In the First Reading Abraham is resting and relaxing near the entrance of his tent in the shade of a tree, when suddenly three strangers appear. We might say there are two kinds of hospitality at work here. The first is the obvious in that Abraham rushes to welcome these visitors and to do everything he can to make them feel welcome and contented. The second is more subtle, but perhaps even more critical. Abraham is welcoming God into his life and the life of his household. Hospitality certainly involves how we treat and how we deal with strangers and visitors in our lives, but it also has to do with whether we are open and welcoming to the presence of God in our lives.

The Gospel Reading is all about hospitality. It is clear that there are those two kinds of hospitality as cited earlier in this reflection. There is the hospitality of Martha, the one who makes sure the Lord and His followers are welcomed, comforted, and provided with all the elements of good service. The point of this Gospel in no way diminishes Martha's efforts to be the perfect hostess. But Jesus wants Martha (and us) to know that the other side of hospitality, welcoming Jesus into our life, is just as important, if not more so.

"Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things." Like Martha we may focus on others and provide the hospitality of welcoming to which we are called as Disciples of Christ, a hospitality we need to offer as part of our parish lives. On the other hand, we also need to imitate Mary; when we need to "sit at Jesus' feet." Serving others is good, but we need to recognize the importance of having a continued focus on Jesus as well and just be in his presence.

May we develop a sense of hospitality that includes the Martha and Mary approach.

Sr. Arlene

Gospel: Luke 10:38-42

Jesus was welcomed into the home of a woman named Martha. She complained to Jesus that her sister Mary sat listening to him instead of helping with the tasks of entertaining. Jesus told Martha that her sister had chosen the more important task, and should be allowed to listen.

Outreach Ministries

Several Sources Shelters, prolife shelters for mothers who seek to give God's blessed gift of life to their children, rather than sacrifice them through abortion, will ask parishioners for their assistance next weekend, July 23-24, 2016. A representative from Several Sources will speak at the Masses. Your assistance can help to save the life of a child. Jesus said of children, "Their angels do behold the Face of God in heaven daily." Can you be a child's earthly Guardian Angel? Please assist with their work.

Time to Reorder the "Sunday Missal" ...

If you plan to order a Sunday Missal for 2016-2017, please do so as soon as possible. Fill out the flyer available at the entrances to the church and then submit your check made payable to Our Lady of Consolation Church for $3.50 to the Parish Center. Orders will be taken up until July 25.

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME JULY 17, 2016

"Jesus entered a village where a woman whose name was Martha welcomed him. She had a sister named Mary who sat beside the Lord at his feet listening to him speak. Martha burdened with much serving, came to him and said. 'Lord do you not care that my sister has left me by myself to do the serving? Tell her to help me.'"

A mark of many religious communities is the gift of hospitality. Like Abraham, and the family of Bethany, being a host was something special. In both cases, the guests were truly special. The conversations became more telling than the visit itself.

Please Come & Celebrate
St. Mary of Magdala
at a Prayer Service to be held Monday, July 18,
at 7:30 P.M. in St. Mary's Church
There will be refreshments following the service.

Once again we will join with our neighbors from Our Lady of Consolation in celebrating one of the foremost leaders in the early Church. Mary of Magdala led the group of women who accompanied Jesus and supported him in his ministry, was present at his death, and was the first to proclaim the good news of His Resurrection to the other disciples.

Pope Francis recently decided to raise the celebration of St. Mary Magdalene's memorial to a feast day, equal to those of the apostles. The change reflects her status as the 'apostle to the apostles' and a witness to God's mercy. This also emphasizes "the dignity of women, the New Evangelization, and the greatness of the mystery of Divine Mercy. The Holy Father took this decision precisely in the context of the Jubilee of Mercy to signify the importance of this woman who showed a great love for Christ and was much loved by Christ," said Archbishop Arthur Roche, the Secretary of the Congregation for Divine Worship.
