A Roman Catholic Community Devoted to Stewardship
Founded 1963

Parish Mission Statement

WE, the people of Our Lady of Consolation Parish guided by the Holy Spirit and nourished by the Eucharist, pledge to continue the mission of Jesus Christ who announced the reign of God. We accept His challenge to proclaim the Good News of salvation that Jesus, the Christ, died for us, and in Him we have life to the fullest measure. We seek to live as He lived, in service to others, building a community of faith and hope, with God's grace as our strength and the peace of Christ our heart's desire.

A Message from our Coordinator of Religious Education...

This week’s Gospel story of the Pharisee and the tax collector is such an interesting one to me.

So, the scripture begins... “Two people go up to the temple area to pray.” First there’s the Pharisee who goes on and on about all his accomplishments. He boasts about his superiority-how he is not greedy or dishonest like the rest his neighbors. Especially like the tax collector who is standing a short distance from him and is there to do the same thing, pray. We then hear from the tax collector, “O God be merciful to me a sinner.” That is all he says. He offers no excuses, for he knows he has done much to offend the law. He doesn’t even approach the temple or raise his head as he weighed down by the burden of sin.

So what is the essential contrast? What is the drastic difference between the two? The one feels all he has done are his own accomplishments, his own doings. Not once realizing the true nature of his blessings result from God’s grace and mercy. Whereas the tax collector relies entirely on the mercy of God. He leaves everything to God, offering only his sincere sorrow. He knows his saving grace is only from God.

In my opinion, this parable is not about self-righteousness vs. humility. But rather God’s response- He alone can judge the human heart and justify the sinful. In a perfect world, the Pharisee would have reached out to the tax collector to encourage him to express an outward of faith and the tax collector would have encouraged the Pharisee to a greater reliance on God!

Who is a Parishioner?

A Parishioner is one who is registered and regularly participates in the liturgical life of the parish and demonstrates their support, as reflected in the Parish Mission Statement, by completing and fulfilling an annual Stewardship Commitment of Time, Talent and Treasure.

OFFERTORY ENVELOPES

If you do not receive your printed offertory envelopes, please contact Joe Donnelly, Director of Stewardship, at 973-839-3444 X 117.

PARISH REGISTRATION

Young adults of working age, living at home, should register independently of their parents. This will enable us to assist at times of requests for sponsorship of Baptism, Confirmation or Matrimony.

THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME OCTOBER 23, 2016

“The Lord is not deaf to the wail of the orphan, nor to the widow when she pours out her complaint. The one who serves God willingly is heard, his petition reaches the heavens. The prayer of the lowly pierces the clouds; it does not rest until it reaches its goal, nor will it withdraw till the Most High responds, judges justly and affirms the right...” Why pray? God does not care! He seems to be deaf. How often we have felt this way? How frequently we are tempted to give up? Somehow the grace of God revives me, reminds me, and restores me as a person of faith and prayer.

When Pope Francis was asked ‘who are you?’ he replied by saying ‘I am a sinner.’ It is the sinner person who approaches the Lord with confidence, eyes down, asking ‘O God be merciful to me a sinner.’

Perhaps our approach to God in prayer is not to be limited to what I want, though I am told to ask, but to ask God for what I need most from His point of view. The prayer of mercy ‘Jesus I trust in you’ can take on even greater meaning. My petition reaches the heaven and pierces the clouds, and reaches its goal.

GOSPEL: LUKE 18:9-14

Jesus tells a parable about a Pharisee who went to the temple, and offered up a prayer of thanks because he was not a sinner like the tax collector who was also there to pray. The tax collector was far more humble, acknowledging his sins, and asking forgiveness for them. Jesus said the tax collector’s prayer would be heard because, “Everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, while he who humbles himself will be exalted.”

RESPONSE ~ ANNUAL STEWARDSHIP RENEWAL ~ 2016

"300 PLUS Families" have committed to date to share their
Time, Talent and Treasure.

We thank you for participating in the growth of the parish!

A significant number of our registered parish families have not yet decided to make a commitment. For those who have not made a decision, please consider sharing your Time, Talent and Treasure. Each one of us has a special gift to share with others; all we need to do is to make that "Decision".

We are blessed to have so many parishioners who participate in more than one ministry and have for many years. Please join your fellow parishioners in the growth of our parish and service to the community, including our Mission of San Pablo, Ecuador, by joining a ministry of your choice....

...It is not a life commitment, but it is a commitment to life.
